Japan Grand Prix International Orchid Festival

is one of the Largest Orchid Show in the world. It has been hold since 1991 and the show in 2018 will be the 28th festival. A large variety of orchids from all over the world including those of tropical, temperate, oriental and Japanese origin orchids will be displayed in exhibits and sales booths. In the sales area, flowers and plants other than orchids are also available. In February we would like to bring you early spring in the middle of the metropolitan Tokyo.

Various Aspects of Orchid Charm

We use orchids to create extraordinary spaces of many different aspects. In 2017 there was an exhibit we collaborated with Takarazuka Revue, which is Japanese all-female musical theater troupe. In another exhibits, flower artists and Ikebana schools created an extraordinary exhibits featured orchids.

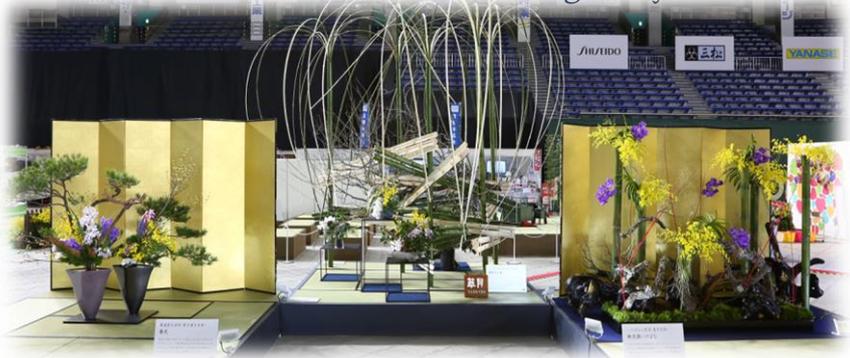

Orchid Gate supervised by the Takarazuka Revue

Florist, Shogo Kariyazaki

Florist ,Etsuko Shihomi

Exhibits by Ikebana Schools, Ikenobo, Sogetsu and Ohara.

Wide variety of colors and forms

Orchids are very unique plants and they get large variety of colors and form. We hold orchid competitions in six division (Division I Individual, Division II Fragrance, Division III Display, Division IV Flower Arrangement, Division V Arts, Division VI Miniature Orchid Garden.) and those are filled with a large numbers of various orchids.

Orchid and flower market

Wide variety of orchids and other flowers are available in the market. About 150 vendors are brought together in the Tokyo Dome at a time.

How to enjoy orchids

We share many ways how to enjoy orchids and enrich our lives through orchids. Some exhibits are produced by wives of ambassadors, lady ambassadors to Japan or the Japan Hanging Basket Society.
